SUBJECT: PAUL LEECH ROBESON

(CC:NY)

ReNYlet 12/8/67, indicating that subject was possibly in a rest home in Connecticut.

The "New York Post" of 12/23/67, contained a short article stating that the subject "who has been ill much of the time since he collapsed near his Manhattan home two years ago, has been hospitalized in Philadelphia. -- Doctors in University Hospital said ROBESON was admitted Tuesday (12/19/67) suffering from dermatitis, a skin inflammation. He is expected to be released shortly."

The article goes on to state that the subject has been living in Philadelphia with his sister, Mrs. ~~MARION FORSYTHE~~, "a retired teacher."

Review of subject's file reflects that in Philadelphia letter to the Director, 8/16/66, captioned, "Visitors to Iron Curtain Countries - USSR; IS-R" ~~MARIAN M. FORSYTHE~~ resided at 4951 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., in 1965.

The Philadelphia Division is requested to verify subject's presence at University Hospital or at his sister's residence in that city; and to determine, if possible, through logical sources and contacts subject's plans, and length, of staying in Philadelphia.

Re New York letter to Director, 1/8/68.

On 12/21/67, [REDACTED] contacted SA [REDACTED] and advised that he ascertained from an unknown source at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital that PAUL ROBESON had been admitted on 12/20/67, to be treated for Neurological Dermatitis. He was admitted by Dr. WALTER B. SHELLEY.

On 1/18/68, [REDACTED] University of Pennsylvania Hospital, an established source whose identity should be concealed, advised SA EDWARD A. SMITH that PAUL L. ROBESON was admitted to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital on 12/19/67, for treatment of a Dermatitis infection. ROBESON indicated that his Philadelphia address would be 4951 Walnut Street, the residence of his sister, Mrs. MARIE FORSYTHE. His religious preference was given as Methodist and a notation [REDACTED] indicates that the hospital bill should be forwarded to H. LEE LURIE, Attorney, 10 East 40th Street, New York City, 10016.

On 2/19/68, [REDACTED] advised that ROBESON was discharged 12/29/67, is not an outpatient and presumably returned to New York upon his release from the hospital. He noted that ROBESON had occupied a $45.00 a day room at the hospital.

No other Philadelphia sources have any knowledge of the subject's presence in Philadelphia.

The October 17, 1967, issue of "The Worker," the Sunday edition of the "Daily Worker," an east coast Communist newspaper, which has since gone out of business, page 3, carried a four column article concerning the subject and stated in the last paragraph, "PAUL ROBESON, now 69, suffered serious injuries in a fall in 1965..."

[REDACTED] an announcement was made that on April 13, 1969, there would be a cultural program celebrating the 71st birthday of PAUL ROBESON at the Joe Louis Theater, 35th Street and Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

On [REDACTED] advised a meeting of the CP was held on [REDACTED] and an announcement was made of a birthday celebration on April 13, 1969, for PAUL ROBESON, sponsored by the African-American Heritage Association (AAHA). The event was to be held at the Joe Louis Theater, Chicago, Ill. b7I

On [REDACTED] furnished information that an anniversary celebration, sponsored by the AAHA, was held on April 13, 1969, in honor of PAUL ROBESON. The affair was held at the Joe Louis Theater, Chicago, Ill., and WILLIAM PATTERSON, described as a CP leader from New York, was the main speaker.

Dear Father Drinan:

For the past year I have been researching the life of Paul Robeson.
Last Thursday through Saturday I interviewed [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] During our talks, he mentioned that he had contacted you and asked that you attempt to gain his file from the House UnAmerican Activities Committee. [REDACTED] also stated that the process was underway, though it took some time to get his file. If, indeed, you are able to do this for him, is it also possible that this can be done for Paul Robeson's file? I am also interested in seeing the material on Robeson in both the State Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Robeson had his passport taken from him in 1950 and he did not regain it until 1958 when Rockwell Kent won his decision. I read recently in the New York Times that material dating back over fifteen years ago is now open for research in the FBI. Is this accurate? Whatever help you may be able to offer in any of these areas would be much appreciated. b7c

By way of introduction, I have [REDACTED]

I believe with this as a background I can do justice to a Robeson biography and bring to light a man who has been all but forgotten in America.

I hope to hear from you at your earliest convenience. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

SCOPE, NATURE, AND CONTENTS:

This popular biography of Paul Robeson, the great black athlete, singer, actor, linguist, and political activist who in the McCarthy period in the United States plummeted from a peak of fame and popularity to what can only be described as enforced obscurity, will recreate the man and his legend in a warm, readable, but serious book. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is interviewing lifelong friends and co-workers of Robeson's, admirers, detractors, and son Paul, Jr., who is making available to her letters and other materials from the Robeson archives as the official biographer, Lloyd L. Brown, finishes with them. Her book will be published well in advance of the Brown book and will have the advantage of being written by a young black woman with a fresh point of view. She came to this biography as the result of covering the Robeson 75th birthday celebration for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and realizing with a shock how little she knew of the epic figure -- once widely acclaimed, later so shunned that his name disappeared from bibliographies and prints of his famous movie performance in Eugene O'Neill's "The Emperor Jones" were destroyed (a patched-together version is now playing in U.S. theaters), then left to oblivion.

Today there is a new surge of interest in Robeson. A generation of whom [REDACTED] is a spokesman is collecting his old recordings (78s mostly) at premium prices and re-evaluating the significance of his experience. Covering the dramatic span of his life as football hero, artist, passionate humanitarian, Communist sympathizer, outcast, and forgotten man, she begins her book with his childhood in Princeton, N.J., where his clergyman father, born a slave, raised him after his mother, the descendant of a free black of Revolutionary days, died in a fire when young Paul was six. Her book then explores his feats at Rutgers (Phi Beta Kappa as well as the first black named All-American); his switch from law school to the concert stage and his triumph as an actor in Othello; his development as performer, translator, and popularizer of the folk songs of many nations; his evolution into a "political" artist; his tours of Europe, residence in England and Russia; his marriage and the other women in his life. The final chapter will take him to the present or to his possible death.

Paul Robeson Commemorative Committee

The Wednesday, July 21, 1976 issue of the "Daily World", on page 6, contained an article entitled "To the UN: Declare Paul Robeson birth date Day of International Peace and Friendship". The article, datelined "Toronto", reflected, in part, that the Paul Robeson Commemorative Committee (PRCC), recently formed in Toronto, has called upon the Secretary General of the United Nations, Kurt Waldheim, to place before the United Nations the proposal that the birthdate of Paul Robeson (April 9), be officially proclaimed as "the Paul Robeson day of International Peace and Friendship".

The "Daily World" is an east coast communist newspaper.

The late city edition of "The New York Times", dated December 23, 1963, reported that Paul Robeson left the United States on July 10, 1958, after an eight-year legal fight and a Supreme Court ruling to obtain a passport.

According to the article, Paul Robeson once said he loved "the Soviet people more than any other nation because of their suffering and sacrifices for us, the Negro people, the progressive people, the people of the future in this world".

Most of the questions directed at Robeson upon his arrival in New York, New York on December 22, 1963, were answered by his wife who told reporters her husband still thinks Communism is "terrific".

The January 24, 1976 issue of the "Daily World", on page 1, contained information reflecting that Paul Robeson died January 23, 1976 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The article appearing in the July 21, 1976 issue of the "Daily World" also reflected that the PRCC is headed by Harvey Murphy, a retired trade unionist, who is Chairman of the PRCC.

The letter sent by the PRCC to Kurt Waldheim, Secretary General of the United Nations, also appears in the July 21, 1976 "Daily World" article.

At the end of the July 21, 1976 "Daily World" article appears a note entitled "To our readers:", written by "A.B.", not further identified, which note solicits support from "Daily World" readers for the PRCC's proposal to the United Nations. This note indicates the address of the PRCC to be 214 Beverly Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M 5T 123.

Attached hereto is a copy of the above-referred-to article which appeared in the July 21, 1976 issue of the "Daily World".

To the UN: Declare Paul Robeson birth date Day of International

Peace and Friendship

TORONTO—The Paul Robeson Commemorative Committee, recently formed in Toronto, has called upon the General Secretary of the United Nations, Kurt Waldheim, to place before the United Nations the proposal that the birthdate of Paul Robeson be officially proclaimed as "the Paul Robeson day of International Peace and Friendship."

Robeson's life and work was the subject of a concert tribute recently in Toronto, which drew wide recognition and acclaim. At the concert the packed audience heard messages of tribute from the four corners of the globe, many of whom subscribed to the idea of setting aside April 9 as an international day.

The Committee, headed by Harvey Murphy, a retired trade unionist who led the fight in Canada to free Robeson from the U.S.-imposed ban on his travel during the 1950's, has sent the following letter to Waldheim with copies to the States Members (U.N. delegations) as well as to all Non-Governmental Organizations at the United Nations. A special appeal will be made to the Canadian Government to support and carry the proposal to the U.N. General Assembly.

Honorable Kurt Waldheim
Secretary General United Nations

Honorable Sir:

We are addressing a request to you for consideration of the proposal that the United Nations Organization proclaim the birthday of Paul Robeson, April 9, deceased in January this year, as the world day of peace and friendship among all peoples.

We respectfully suggest that it should be proclaimed officially on April 9th, in perpetuity, as the PAUL ROBESON DAY OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP

Our purpose in setting forth this suggestion is to provide for the peoples of all lands and countries a day in which all may celebrate their oneness and commonality as a means of strengthening the cause of peace to which the UNO is dedicated and to which Paul Robeson devoted his life.

Such an action would be in harmony with the universal aims and activities of this extraordinary man who was known and loved for his ceaseless efforts in the cause of peace and friendship in the world, as well as for his creative genius as a concert singer and actor.

His life and work were perhaps best symbolized when in the front lines of Spain in 1938, singing to the Loyalist troops and to the troops of the International Brigades, the guns were stilled on both sides of the fighting front.

His studies of the languages of many nations and people became a life-long effort to seek universal communication of the message of peace and friendship. It is true to say that his songs and his words rang like the bell of freedom around the world, to all continents and peoples.

No person can say that his unique abilities and gifts were used other than to heal and overcome obstacles and antagonisms among humankind. And in this noble work of love and brotherhood as he himself declared, "I will never retreat one thousandth part of one inch."

His courage and bravery, and in particular, his unrelenting struggle for the freedom and dignity of the colored and the oppressed peoples of all countries, has left a legacy which must not be forgotten.

He was a Black American, son of a slave who fought for and achieved his freedom. This heritage no doubt led Paul Robeson to the side of the working people, Black, white or brown, to struggle with them for the attainment of human dignity and freedom.

Recently in Toronto at a concert to honor Paul Robeson, greetings and tribute came from all parts of the world. The audience unanimously responded to the proposal of requesting the United Nations to proclaim his birthday as "THE PAUL ROBESON DAY OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP."

In view of the universal acclaim of Paul Robeson, we are also sending copies of this letter to all States Members of the United Nations Organization and to all Non-Government Organizations. We do so in order that Paul Robeson's contribution to understanding and peace be forever kept and acclaimed by the human family.

Respectfully yours,

PAUL ROBESON COMMEMORATIVE COMMITTEE, TORONTO, CANADA.

Harvey Murphy, Chairman

To our readers:

Surely, this proposal should and will receive the widest support from unions, churches and community organizations in Paul Robeson's homeland, the U.S.A.

We suggest that Daily World readers bring the request for a UN proclamation of April 9 as PAUL ROBESON DAY OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP to the attention of the membership of their organizations; and that copies of resolutions in support of the Canadian committee's initiative be forwarded to the Paul Robeson Commemorative Committee, 214 Beverly Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M 5T 1Z3, to the Honorable Kurt Waldheim, Secretary General, United Nations and to the Honorable William Scranton, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations.

A.B.

Dear President Carter:

It was mentioned on a radio interview of Paul Robeson, Jr. that information and tapes of his father singing and speaking are being held by the F.B.I. and C.I.A. Why should this be so and what could be done to secure the release of this information?

He was one great human being, superior in intellect and accomplishment. What a rare instrument was his voice. There are so few like his that it is a shame we squelched it. Truly, he was an early black leader and paid a heavy price for his convictions. Can we not now take off the lid and let his greatness rise?

His son says that he never suffered any bitterness or hatred about what happened to him because he was all about LOVE. And the velvet voice. What a shame his career was not allowed to flower so that we would have more of his music recorded.

Last year we entertained a man from Holland who was bent on finding some Robeson records when in New York City. I think he must have been more appreciated outside our country.

When I heard Paul Robeson, Jr. being interviewed on WXXR (the New York Times station in New York) on the eve of his father's birthday, I was pleased to hear of an effort to give Paul Robeson the place he deserves even posthumously.

Yours truly, MAY 9 1978
